Program Overview
The student is expected to complete the Arabic Program for Speakers of Other Languages at the Language Center after studying 45 credit hours.

Program Vision and Mission
Vision	Achieving academic excellence at the local, regional, and global levels.
Mission	Achieving distinction in Arabic language teaching programs for speakers of other languages and contributing to the development of education and training quality according to the highest standards.

Program Learning Objectives (CLOs)
1.	Equip students with the essential knowledge and linguistic and communicative skills that speakers of other languages need for learning Arabic.
2.	Introduce the student to Arab-Islamic culture in general, and to Jordanian culture in particular.
3.	Develop the student's personality in a way that enables them to innovate, face challenges, engage in self-learning, and work collaboratively with others.
4.	Strengthen cooperation between the university and other universities at the local, regional, and global levels.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)
PLO1	Demonstrating the ability to communicate effectively in all linguistic situations, both oral and written, by preparing and comprehending discourse in Arabic within its diverse cultural contexts.
PLO2	Showing the ability to exhibit independence, motivation, self-direction, and good organizational skills through the application of various learning techniques specific to the field of Arabic for speakers of other languages.
PLO3	Developing the ability to work professionally and effectively in Arabic-speaking environments within a collaborative framework, using Arabic as a medium of communication.
PLO4	Demonstrating the ability to engage in constructive and critical dialogue between cultures by preparing multilingual and multicultural individuals within the context of the concept of global citizenship.
